BASIC LEVELING INFORMATION

- ❖ All leveling is on a class by class basis.
- ❖ All Youth and Amateur classes plus Open division Halter and Cattle classes are based on the exhibitor's level eligibility and not the horse.
- ❖ If you show in Youth or Amateur classes, your level eligibility is based solely on your points, awards and money earned.
- ❖ Level 1, 2 and 3 eligibility are based on the previous three years of points--- see Timeline page for example.
- ❖ Points earned in lower level classes will not count against eligibility for higher levels, but points earned in higher levels will count towards lower level eligibility.
 - Example: Points earned in Rookie and Level 1 classes will not be counted towards eligibility for Level 2. Points earned in Level 2 and Level 3 will count towards Rookie and Level 1 eligibility.
- ❖ Lifetime points, awards and money earned does not mean beginning of show career to the date you are checking eligibility.
 - Lifetime for leveling means beginning of show career to October 31 prior to the year of eligibility --- see Timeline page for example.
- ❖ Show management determines whether to level a class.
 - If your class is not leveled, please visit with the show management to request that change.
- ❖ You may show in any level you are eligible for.
 - Example, if you are Level 1 eligible in a class, you may show in Level 1 plus either Level 2 or Level 3 in the same class.
- ❖ If you wish to qualify for a world show, you must earn points in Level 2 or Level 3.
- ❖ Rookie and Level 1 points do not count towards world show qualifications.
- ❖ Level eligibility is for the full year; whatever levels you are eligible for on January 1st of the current show year is what you are eligible for that whole year.
- ❖ Points earned in Walk/Trot-jog classes do not count towards level eligibility.
- ❖ Ownership requirements are not applied in the Rookie or Level 1 classes; however, ownership requirements are in place for Level 1 at the Top 10 shows. See SHW245.8 of the AQHA rulebook for other ownership requirements.
- ❖ Other requirements besides leveling must be met before competing in Performance Halter, Amateur or Youth Boxing or Level 1 (Horse) Working Hunter classes.

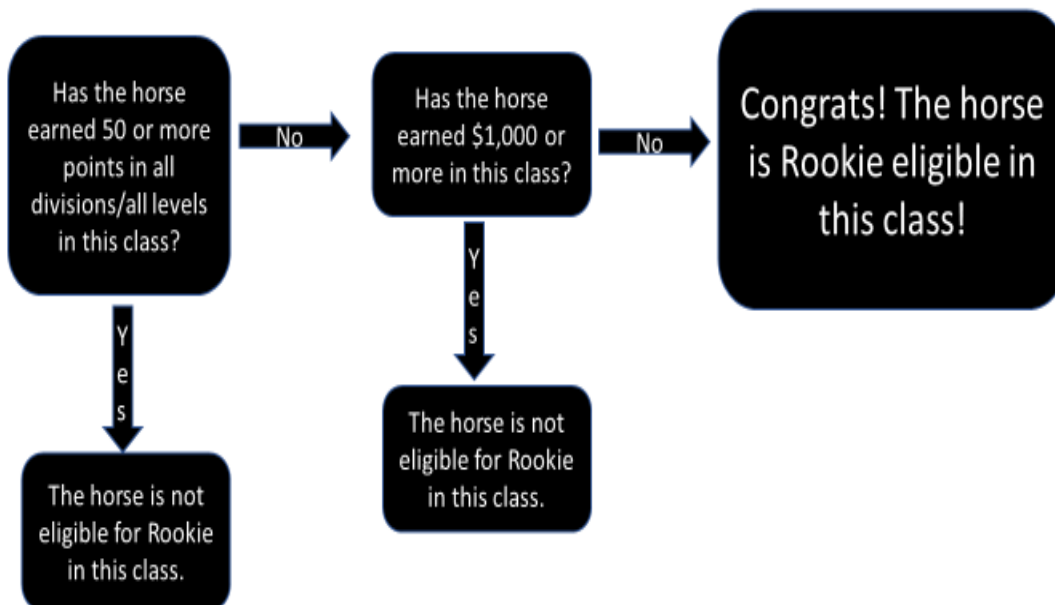

ROOKIE LEVEL

- ❖ To show in a Rookie class, regardless of division, you and the horse you will be showing must both be Rookie eligible in that class.
- ❖ Rookie can be offered for all classes except for Halter/Performance Halter Stallions.
- ❖ Exhibitor Rookie eligibility is based on:
 - Lifetime points, awards and money earned.
 - Must have earned fewer than ten points.
 - All divisions count towards these ten points.
 - Must not have ever won more than $5,000.
- ❖ Horse Rookie eligibility is based on:
 - Lifetime points, awards and money earned.
 - Must have earned fewer than 50 points.
 - All divisions and all levels count towards these 50 points.
 - Level 1 (exhibitor) points do not count toward the horse's eligibility.
 - The point and earning limit does not apply to horses shown in over fences classes.
- ❖ Points earned in a Rookie class will only go towards Rookie eligibility.
 - They do not affect eligibility for other levels or count towards any awards or world show qualifications.
- ❖ Once leveled out, you or your horse cannot return to the Rookie level.

Rookie- Exhibitor

Rookie- Horse

• The point and earning limit does not apply to horses shown in over fences classes.

2020 LEVELING TIME FRAMES

3-year time frame is used for Level 1 (exhibitor), Level 2 and Level 3 eligibility. Points earned in this 3- year time frame are added together to get the total number of points.

November 1, 2016  October 31, 2019

5-year time frame is used for Level 2 eligibility when a horse or exhibitor wins a World or Reserve World title.

2015  2019

10- year time frame is used for Superior awards- if a superior was earned during this time frame, the exhibitor is not eligible for Level 1 in the class the Superior was earned.

November 1, 2010  October 31, 2019

10-year time frame is also used for exhibitors who have pointed out of Level 1. If you have received a Level 1 completion achievement, you must not earn any points in that class in any level in any division, for 10 consecutive years in order to become eligible for Level 1 again in that class.

Year achievement received  10 consecutive years with no points earned in that class

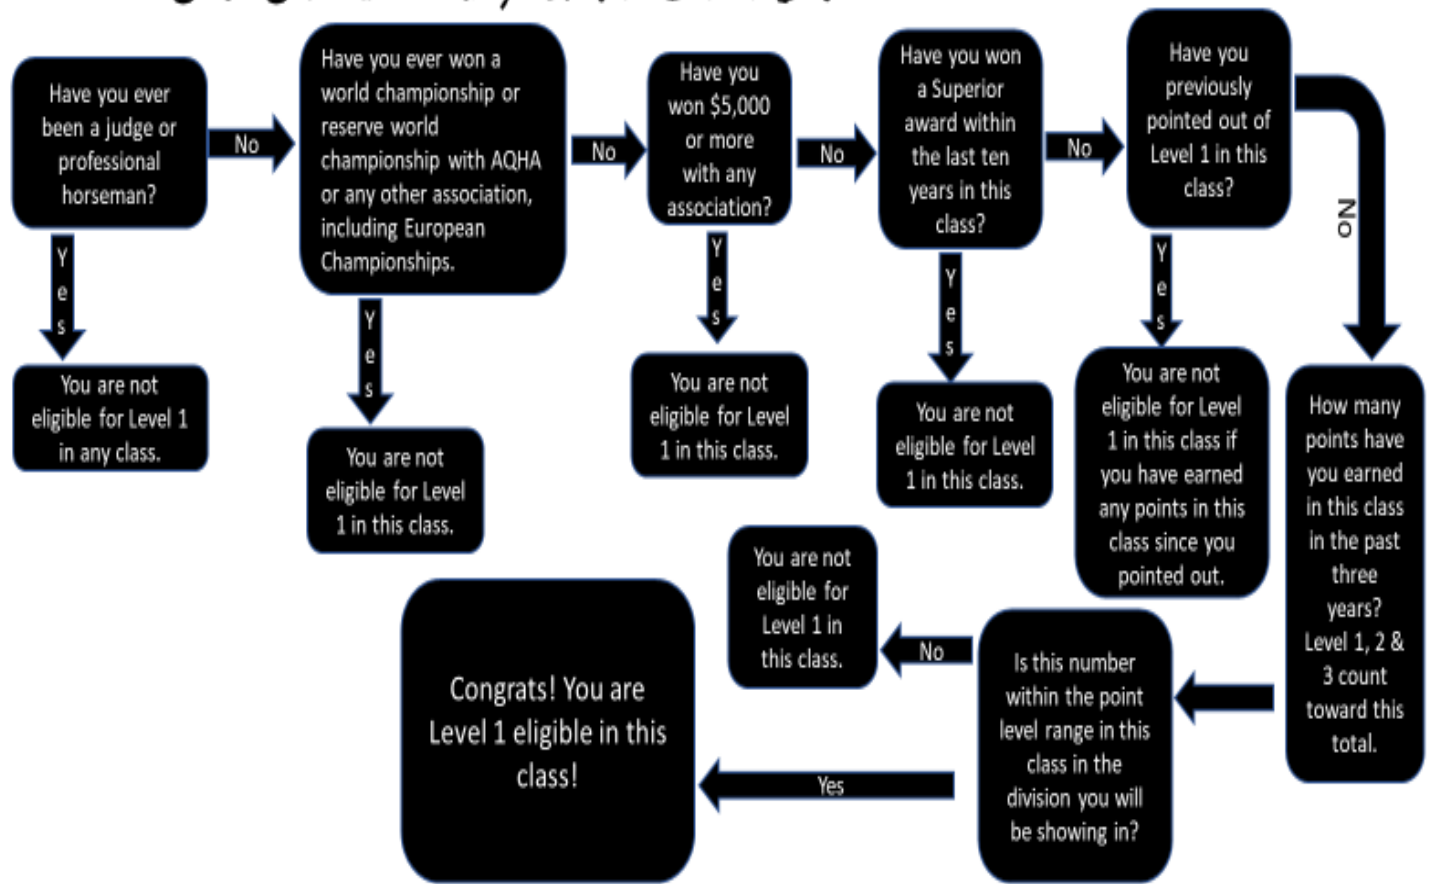

Lifetime time frame- this is used for Rookie and Level 1 (horse) eligibility. It starts from the date the first half point was earned in any division and goes through October 31 of the current eligibility year.

1st half point earned  October 31, 2019

LEVEL 1 EXHIBITOR

- ❖ Level 1 exhibitor eligibility is based on points earned in Level 1, Level 2 and Level 3 classes for the previous three years. (see Timeline page for example).
 - Exclude all Versatility Ranch Horse points
 - Exclude all Dressage points
 - Exclude all Cowboy Mounted Shooting points
 - Exclude all Equestrians with Disability points
 - Exclude all Rookie points
 - Exclude all Walk/Trot-Jog points
- ❖ To be eligible for Level 1 exhibitor classes, you must not have:
 - Earned a superior award within the past ten years (see Timeline page for example) with an equine organization or association with 7,500 members or more.
 - Placed in the top three at any AQHA world show.
 - Won a world, reserve world or national or reserve national championship title with an equine organization or association with 7,500 members or more.
 - Won an international or reserve international title at the European Championships or German Championships, regardless if the class was an AQHA approved class.
 - Won $5,000 or more in cash and prizes with any equine organization or association.
 - Competed on an NCEA equestrian team on a scholarship or ride as a starting exhibitor.
 - Ever been a professional horse trainer or an accredited judge- with any breed, any organization or association.
- ❖ A Level 1 application must be submitted each year regardless of the length of the exhibitor's membership.
- ❖ Level 1 exhibitors may show in Level 1 exhibitor classes on a horse they do not own.
 - The top 10 AQHA shows do require ownership or a show lease in order to participate in Level 1 exhibitor classes.
- ❖ Winning a class at a Level 1 Championship does not make the exhibitor ineligible for Level 1 in that class, just ineligible to show in that class at any future Level 1 Championships.
- ❖ Exhibitors who have pointed out of Level 1 classes but have not reached any of the other achievements, would be able to return to Level 1 if they do not earn any points (any division/any level) for 10 consecutive years from the year they point out of Level 1 in that class.
 - The 10-year timeframe starts over if the exhibitor earns a ½ point or more in that class during that 10-year period.

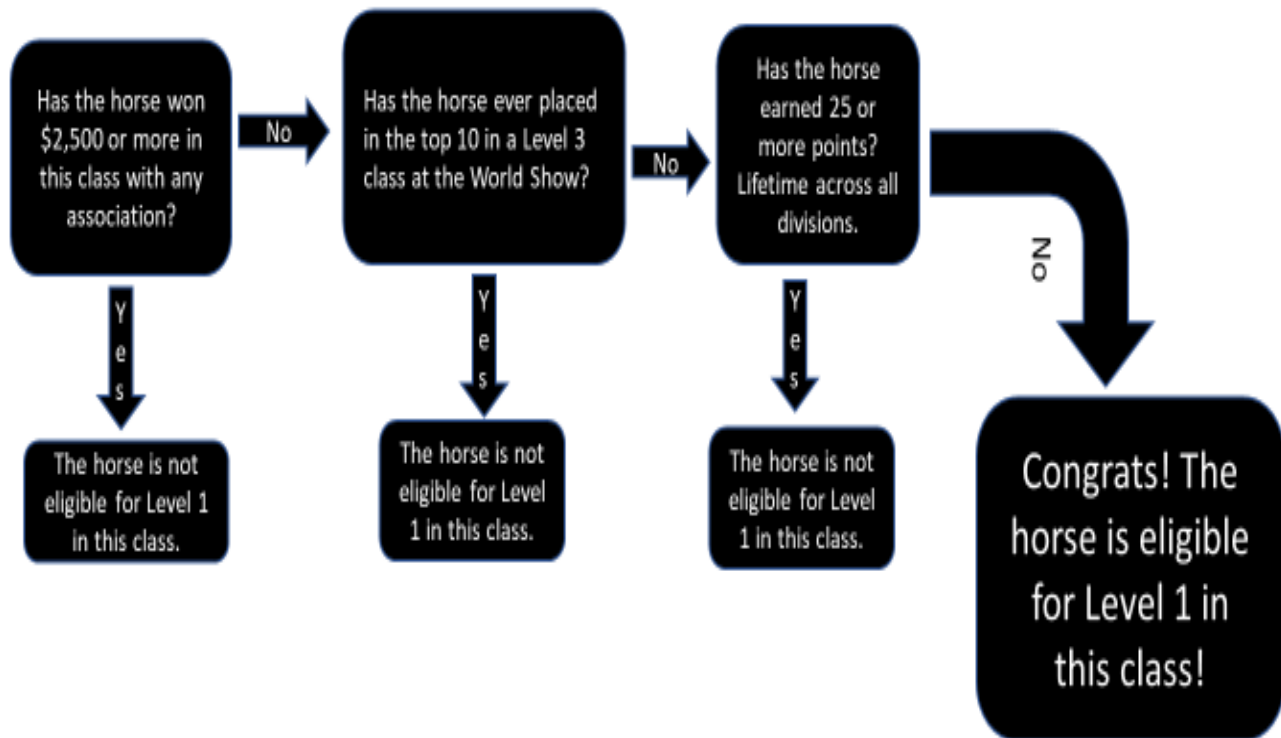

Level 1 Exhibitor

LEVEL 1 HORSE

- ❖ Level 1 (Horse) classes are only available in the Open division halter/performance halter and any cattle class.
- ❖ Eligibility for Level 1 (Horse) classes is based on lifetime points the horse has earned in all divisions in Level 1, Level 2 and Level 3.

 - Exclude all Versatility Ranch Horse points
 - Exclude all Dressage points

 - Exclude all Rookie points
 - Exclude all Walk/Trot-Jog points
- ❖ Horse may not have won $2,500 or more in any equine organization by class.
- ❖ Horses placing in the top 10 in a particular class at the Open World Show will not be eligible for Open Level 1 in that class beginning the following year (does not include top 10 placings in Level 1 or Level 2 World Show classes) and will no longer be eligible for Level 1 in that class.
- ❖ For Open Cattle & Halter Classes: Exhibitors placing top 3 at any AQHA World Show in a particular class will not be eligible for Open Level 1 in that class beginning the following year (does not include Level 1 or Level 2 World Show classes).

Level 1 Horse

LEVEL 2 EXHIBITOR

- ❖ All amateur, youth and open halter/cattle classes are leveled based on the exhibitor performance.

 - Exclude all Level 1 points
- ❖ Exhibitors placing in the top 2 in a particular Level 3 class at any AQHA World Show are not eligible for Level 2 in that class for the subsequent 5 years.
- ❖ Points awarded to Level 2 entries are based on the number of Level 2 entries in the class- not a total of Level 2 and Level 3 entries.

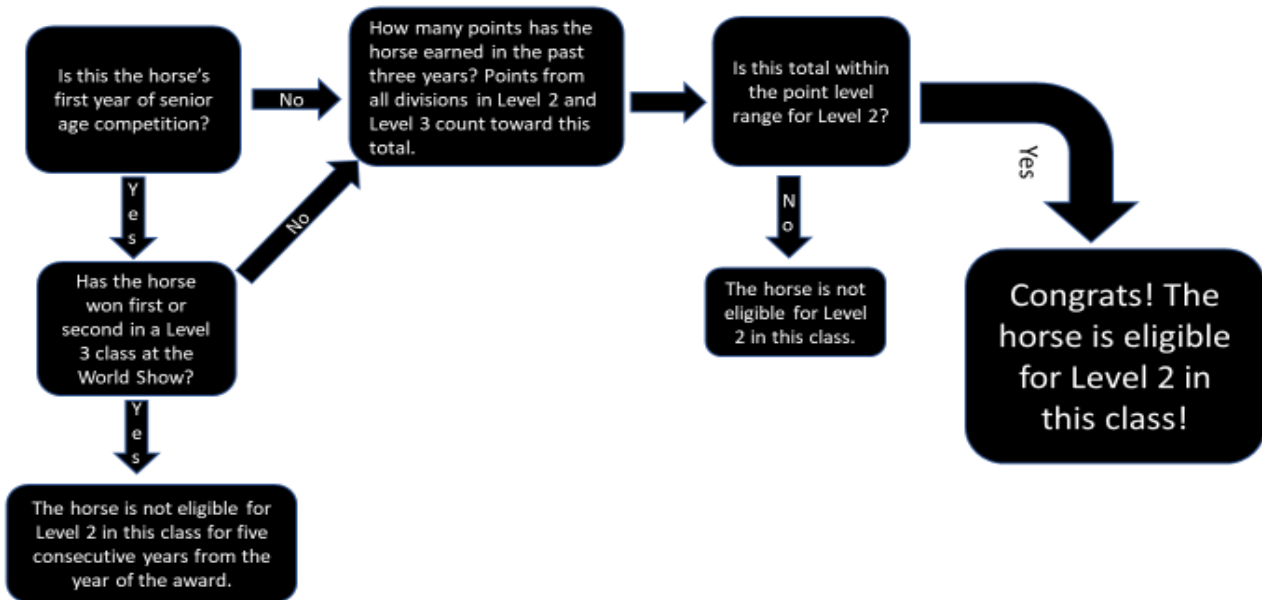

Level 2 Exhibitor

 - The horse placed in the top 2 in a Level 3 class at the Open World Show which excludes the horse from Level 2 in that particular class for 5 years.
 - Does not include top 2 placings in Level 1 or Level 2 World Show classes.
- ❖ Horses placing in the top 2 in a Level 3 class at the Open World Show are not eligible for Level 2 in that particular class for the subsequent 5 years

- ❖ For Open Cattle & Halter Classes: Exhibitors placing in the top 2 in a Level 3 class at any AQHA World Show are not eligible for Level 2 in that class.

Level 2 Horse

BENEFITS OF LEVEL 2

- ❖ Level 2 and Level 3 scored and pattern classes must be ran concurrently.
 - Placed classes have the option of being ran concurrently or separately.
- ❖ Regardless if the classes is ran concurrently or separately, the number of points available for Level 2 are based on the number of Level 2 entries.
- ❖ The number of points available for Level 3 are based on the total number of entries in the class (Level 2 and Level 3).
- ❖ Entering Level 2 means all points available are distributed among the Level 2 entries.
 - Even if the class is ran concurrently, you are only competing against the other Level 2 entries.
- ❖ Entering Level 3 means there are more entries equaling more points available.
- ❖ Points earned in Level 2 and Level 3 both count towards Level 3 world show qualifying.
- ❖ Below is an example of how entering Level 2 vs. Level 3 could potentially affect how many points can be earned in the class.
