

2020 Farnam AQHA Superhorse Award Fact Sheet

Who qualifies for this award?

Any horse entered and shown in a minimum of three open-division Level 3 events in three categories at the Farnam AQHA World Championship Show is eligible (refer to the Farnam AQHA World Handbook for a list of categories). No formal entry is required. Scoring is kept separate from regular class scores.

How is the winner determined?

The point-scoring process is based on the placings in each class. Contenders who place in the top 10 of classes with 10 or more entries will be awarded two sets of points: 10 points for first place, 9 points for second and so forth down the line through 10th place. Additional points are based on the number of entries in the class according to SHW261. POINTS CHART, the point distribution system used to calculate AQHA points found in the AQHA Official Handbook. For classes of less than 10 entries, points will be awarded for the corresponding number of entries. The eligible horse accumulating the greatest number of points in the Level 3 classes in which it participates as an entry will be named the Farnam AQHA Superhorse. In case of a tie, the winner will be determined first by the horse earning points in the greatest number of classes. If the tie is not broken, then by the horse earning more points in a halter class. If the tie is still not broken, the horse placing over the greatest number of entries in the classes in which it competed will win the tie breaker.

What are the prizes?

The owner of the 2020 Farnam AQHA Superhorse will win a trailer, courtesy of Sundowner Trailers, and an original Lisa Perry bronze. The Farnam AQHA Reserve Superhorse will receive $10,000 cash. The third- through fifth-place finalists receive $2,500 cash.

When is the awards presentation?

Points are tabulated beginning with the first open Level 3 finals performance. Once the winners are determined, the top five will be notified by AQHA staff. AQHA staff will give you details about the presentation time (the class it will follow in the finals), your placing and the order in which the awards will be presented. Please be ready to receive your award when called. After all, this is the most prestigious award in Farnam AQHA World competition!

Questions?

Please stop by the Show Office.

www.aqha.com