

New for 2020, entries for the Farnam AQHA World Championship Show; AQHA Select World Championship Show, presented by Adequan® (polysulfated glycosaminoglycan); 2020 AQHA Ranching Heritage Challenge Finals; and Adequan® Level 2 and Nutrena Level 1 championships will be done online.

With the ever-changing state of all events taking place worldwide, the move to using an online system ensures the safety for all of our exhibitors and staff. The online entries will open approximately one month before the entry deadline. Entry information will be available in September and due in October.

The 2020 Farnam AQHA World, Adequan® Select World, AQHA RHC Finals, and Adequan® Level 2 and Nutrena Level 1 championships are tentatively scheduled for November 2-21 at the OKC Fairgrounds in Oklahoma City. The event will be held in accordance with local, state and federal coronavirus mandates.
