

POPSICLE STICK COWBOY OR COWGIRL

Supplies:

- 4 Popsicle Sticks
- Scissors
- Glue
- Construction Paper (Whatever colors you like)
- Markers or Crayons
- A small spool

Instructions:

1. Glue one popsicle stick over the other to form a cross shape.
2. After it dries, glue two popsicle sticks in an upside down "V" shape from the bottom of the cross. (These are the legs)
3. After the glue has dried, glue a small spool on the back of the popsicle sticks, to help you hold on to your cowboy or cowgirl. (Right under where the two original popsicle sticks intersected to form a cross.)
4. Cut out a shirt, pants/skirt, boots, and hat for your cowpoke. Cowboys wear hats with wide brims to protect them from the unforgiving sun. Cattle kick up clouds of dust, so the cowboy may wrap a bandana over the lower half of his face. Chaps, or leggings, and cowboy boots are worn as protection from brush and rocky terrain. You can learn about other cowboys around the world in the Horsemen of the World exhibit.
5. Color them however you would like and glue them to your popsicle sticks. Have fun!
